PASSES BAD BILL ON TICKET AGENT

Woman Gets Ride To Memphis For $1.25

Tom Watson at Union Depot Victim-ized Early This Morning By Passenger.

MARSHAL BROWN TAKES CASE.

A one dollar bill raised to the denomination of five dollars passed on Night Ticket Agent Tom Watson, at the Illinois Central passenger depot, is interesting the police force, and Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal. A good description of the woman who switched the bill to the unsuspecting ticket agent has been secured, and tonight Deputy Marshal Brown will go to Memphis to look her up.

At 3:40 o'clock this morning a tall woman of middle age appeared at the ticket window. She desired a ticket to Memphis and handed out what Watson thought was a $5 bill and a half dollar. The fare is $5.25 and Watson returned 25 cents. The woman departed, the money was pushed into the cash drawer and there remained until Agent Roy L. Prather came on watch at 7 o'clock.

In checking over the business of Watson, Prather found the bill. Watson had taken in but one $5 bill, and remembered the woman when she gave it to him. The bill was cunningly executed, and only a close scrutiny will detect the deception.

The police are searching today to learn something of the woman. It is stated that she went to the depot in a cab, and the cabman is sought.

ASPHALT FILLER

Will Be Used on Brick Paved Portion of Broadway, Probably.

The brick paved portion of Broadway probably will be accorded a treatment of asphalt filler, a composition manufactured by the American Asphalt and Rubber company of Chicago. This composition is elastic and expands and contracts as the weather changes, thus saving it from cracking. On account of its cost it will be used only on Broadway, but on Washington street where it is paved with brick, cement will be used between the bricks and expansion joints will be put in every 50 feet. These joints consist of an application of the asphalt filler clear across the street. Heretofore sand has been used between the bricks but the flush tanks wash the sand out. The question is being considered by the board of public works and the engineering department.

WILL PROSECUTE

Landlords Who Do Not Make Bad Women Move.

The Frontier committee met last night at the tin shop of Chris Miller at Sixth and Trimble streets, and heard a report from the special committee appointed to investigate into the immigration of women from the "red light" district into the First and Second wards. The committee reported that several women had moved. A sub-committee was appointed to confer with property owners renting houses to the women. They will be petitioned to oust the women, and in event they fail, or refuse, will be prosecuted in the grand jury room by the committee.

DENATURED ALCOHOL.

To Be Manufactured at American Spirit Company Plants.

Peoria, Ill. Dec. 8.—The Atlas distillery, a property of the American Spirits Manufacturing company, in all probability will open today for the manufacture of denatured alcohol at its mill capacity of 8,000 barrels a day. It is said that orders for new product have been received far in advance of its initial denaturing process, and that the distillery will be kept working the year round producing this class of goods.

Head Kicked Off.

Parkersburg, W. Va. Dec. 8.—Louis Marshall, aged five was killed by a horse today. The animal kicked him on the temple. The side of his head was literally torn away and his brains were oozing out when found.

BOY DOES NOT KNOW.

That He Was Rescued From Certain Death By The Law.

Running as fast as his little brown legs could carry him, a small negro boy caught picking coal in the Illinois Central yards this morning, does not know that, instead of escaping from the law by his wits, the strong arm of the law really saved him from death. The youngster was picking coal at the end of a string of box cars when Special Agent Dick Tolbert saw him. Just then an engine threw a cut of cars into the other end of the switch. The impact sent the standing cars down the track and the succession of shocks was running noisily down the line of cars, when the agent seized the unconscious youth by the coat collar and jerked him out of harm's way. The boy took one glance at the silver badge of his rescuer and made off across the hollows.

PAST PALMER

DEPOT LINE CARS WILL GO TO SIXTH STREET.

South Sixth Street Line Will Leave Broadway at Fourth Street—The Reason.

Double curves completed at Sixth and Clark streets last night make possible the introduction of the latest change in the running of the cars of the Paducah Traction company. Hereafter Union depot cars, instead of leaving Broadway at Fourth street, will go south from Broadway on Sixth street to Clark street. This permits the cars to pass the Palmer House. The South Sixth street cars will go south on Fourth street to Clark street and over Clark street to Sixth street. For several months the traction company has been straightening its lines to afford faster and more regular schedules and changing routes both for the sake of economy and accommodation.

TWO BIG TRUNKS

LEFT HOME WITH MRS. DOWNING, WHO DISAPPEARED.

Sharpe, Marshall County, Interested in Affairs of Well-To-Do Family.

Farmers living in the neighborhood of Sharpe, Marshall county, ten miles from Paducah on the Benton road, are interested in the affairs of the family of Ed Downing, a well-to-do farmer of that section whose wife left home last Wednesday.

There is an air of mystery about the case, and many rumors of inconsistency are afloat.

Mr. Downing himself declined to discuss the matter this morning further than to say that Mrs. Downing is gone, and although he does not know where she is, he is not searching for her. She left home with two big trunks of clothing and her husband, it is said, brought them to Paducah, where Mrs. Downing disappeared.

That was Wednesday morning. She called on relatives in Paducah that day but did not say anything about her intentions.

Mrs. Downing is 36 years old and was born and raised in Marshall county.

Neighbors say that discoveries made by the husband led to Mrs. Downing's disappearance.

DR. COLEMAN SINKING.

Attending Physicians Give Him Few Days.

At press time Dr. J. R. Coleman was reported low and slowly sinking. Physicians have despaired of his life and say it is a question of only a few days before he will succumb. Dr. Coleman was yesterday slightly better for a few hours, but his condition had changed so little that the slight betterment was hardly perceptible.

No Further Stay.

Gov. Folk announced yesterday he would not give Aggie Meyers, convicted of murdering her husband in Kansas City, any further stay of execution unless Justice Brewer, of the United States supreme court, asks for further time.

SELLING LIQUOR TO CITY YOUTHS

Is Being Investigated By The Grand Jury

It Is Expected That Some Indictments for Offense Will Be Returned.

SEVERAL CASES CONSIDERED

The grand jury is now working on "outside business," and promises something startling in its reports from now on according to a rumor around the court house.

Judge Reed charged it to investigate gaming, selling liquor to minors, and the crime of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Of these charges selling liquor to minors seems to be of great interest. The grand jury is investigating several cases. It is likely that a batch of indictments for this offense will be returned.

Alleged Disorderly House.

Mayor Yeiser turned over to the grand jury this morning an anonymous communication about an alleged disorderly house on South Eighth street. The letter, contained the names of witnesses. Mayor Yeiser said as the grand jury is in session, he considers it the duty of that body to make the investigation.

COSTLY FIXTURES

Will Be Built in I. C. Ticket Office in Palmer Block.

Three thousand dollars is the estimate made on the cost of the fixtures in the Illinois Central downtown ticket office in the Palmer House, and the contract was awarded to Neiman & Pankey. The fixtures will be mahogany of the finest quality possible to secure. The contractors will employ but the finest cabinet makers and work will begin at once, the plasterers having finished with their work. The furniture has not arrived but will be shipped as soon as the office is ready to receive it.

ALL GO DOWN.

Russian Steamer Strikes Mine and Sinks at Once.

Victoria, B. C. Dec. 8.—The Russian steamer Varaygen, is reported to have sunk off the Manchurian coast with all on board. The vessel carried about 300 people. The vessel steered from her course so the bow struck a hidden mine which exploded. The explosion tore half the bottom from the vessel. She began to fill immediately and sank in less than two minutes.

ANOTHER COLLISION

With Fatalities and Fire on Southern Railway.

Danville, Va. Dec. 8.—A Southern passenger train ran into the rear end of a freight train here this morning. Engineer Kinney, of the passenger train was killed and his fireman badly injured. Two others supposed to be tramps were killed. The accident was remarkably similar to the one on the same road in which President Spencer was killed. The wreckage caught fire and burned a number of cars.

Cornell in Mourning.

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Cornell University is paying honor today to the seven victims whose lives were snuffed out in yesterday's fire, which destroyed a fraternity house. All injured in the hospital with possibly one exception will recover. The funeral of the Ithaca fire man will be held tomorrow.

Crying Need Is Schools.

Ex-Mayor Seth Low, of New York, said last night at Montgomery, Ala., where he was a guest at a banquet, that the crying need of the south was more rural and agricultural schools.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

CHIP OFF OLD BLOCK.

Boston, Dec. 8.—There was all the fire and vigor of his father's manner in Theodore Roosevelt Jr.'s denial today of the report that he is to marry Elsie Janis, the dainty star of "The Vanderbilt Cup." An over-zealous press agent started the report. Teddy said he would not stand for having his name used for advertising purposes and if he could get hold of the press agent he would do things to him.

SHAH REPORTED DEAD.

Berlin, Dec. 8.—Report received here states that the Shah of Persia died early this morning. The report is not confirmed and generally discredited. It is known the condition of the monarch has been precarious.

GROVER CLEVELAND ILL.

Princeton, Dec. 8.—An acute attack of indigestion has kept Grover Cleveland confined at home over a week. His condition remains unimproved.

I. C. WILL SPEND LARGE SUM HERE

Nearly $50,000 Appropriated For Shops

New Electrical Turntable Ordered to Accommodate Largest Engine on System.

NEW TIN SHOP AND SEWERS.

Sewer estimates	$19,000
Electrical turntable	10,000
Tin shop	5,000
Machinery	10,000
Total	$44,000

Forty-four thousand dollars represents a few of the improvements for Paducah terminals of the Illinois Central road for 1907, and when the weather opens up for work they will be started. Means to take care of these improvements have been provided for in the appropriation estimates, and the facilities of the shops here will be greatly increased when the work is completed.

First the sewerage improvements are considered. The Illinois Central had for two years contemplated a new sanitary wash room for employees at the shops. All that was lacking was sewer connections. Instead of fighting the No. 2 sewerage system, which heaps an expense of $19,000 on the road, officials accept the estimates.

New Turntable.

The electrical turntable is expected in January. It will cost about $10,000 and will be located where the old table now stands. This improvement was necessitated by the assignment of the big 750 class engines, the heaviest on the system to this district. The dimensions of the new turntable will be 75 by 10 feet. The present one is but 60 feet long.

The new tin shop was ordered this year but will not be built until 1907. It will be of rock and will cost about $6,000. New machinery will be installed, this coming in the general appropriation of machinery for the Paducah shops.

The total cost of new machinery to replace that which is old and worn out, will be about $10,000. It will be shipped as soon as the machine companies can turn it out.

Assignee Makes Report.

Mr. R. J. Barber's report of receipts and disbursements while he was assignee of the E. Rehkopf Sadlery company shows that he took in $1,202.17, and disbursed all but $513.50 of that amount, which sum he turned over to Cecil Reed. Mr. Barber has resigned.

Beautiful Memorial.

Memorial services were held in Smithland in memory of Capt. Bush and Mr. Dodge, who died several weeks ago. Hon. J. K. Hendrick, C. C. Grassham and Judge W. A. Berry returned today from attending court in Smithland.

Curtis' Preliminary.

Dayton, O., Dec. 8.—Preliminary hearing of David Curtis in jail, charged with the murder and criminal assault of Dora Gilman, will probably be held Tuesday. It is the desire of all now to keep Curtis free from excitement.

NO PLACE TO PLAY WITH BASKETBALL

High School Athletic Association Puzzled

Robert Fisher Elected Manager and Robert Hailey Captain of the Team.

CLASSES WILL BE ORGANIZED

Now that the football season has ended, the students of the High school are turning their attention to basketball. Yesterday afternoon at the close of school the Athletic association held a meeting and elected Robert Fisher manager, and Robert Hailey captain of the school team. Also each class will probably have a class team and the school team will consist of the better players from these teams. The girls are preparing to organize several teams, but no practice has been held by either, as the basketball did not arrive until late Thursday afternoon.

As five players constitute a team the senior boys are safe for there are seven in the class, but the juniors will have to combine with freshmen or sophomores as they have only four boys. The freshmen and sophomores have a sufficient number for a team. It is not known definitely where the teams will play as no suitable place is afforded at the school. The games might be played in the open during the present weather, but during the cold winter the players have to seek a place indoors.

CLEVER THIEF.

Hears Man Tell of Leaving Money at Home and Gets It.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Dec. 8.—Police-man M. W. Merritt is poorer by $24 as the result of the clever trick worked by a negro boy.

When Mr. Merritt left home yesterday morning he forgot his pocket-book, but telephoned his wife and learned that it was safe where he had left it. Meeting a friend on the street he recounted the experience, not paying any attention to several persons standing nearby.

When he reached home at noon, almost the first word his wife addressed to him was the inquiry as to whether or not he had received his pocket-book all right. "Why no," answered her husband; "I did not even send for it." Then it developed that a negro boy had called at the home during the morning, and by a comparison of time, shortly after Mr. Merritt had related the occurrence on the street, and had told Mrs. Merritt that her husband had sent for his purse. Thinking that the boy was telling the truth, she gave him the purse containing $24 and he departed and has not been located since, neither has any clew been found as to his identity.

GREAT ENGLISH GUNNERY.

Jackies of Prince Louis' Flagship Make 80 Per Cent. Record of Hits.

London, Dec. 8.—Remarkable results were obtained by the gunners of the Drake, the flagship of Rear-Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, during their recent gun practice in Aracul Bay. Out of a total of 133 shots fired from the 9.2 guns and the six inchers at a distance of four miles, 105 or 89 per cent., hit the target.

The Drake thus takes top place in the fleet.

DIGGING IN TUNNEL.

Six Men Caught Under Collapsed Shaft.

San Francisco, Dec. 8.—Scores of workmen are digging in a desperate effort to save the lives of six men entombed in a collapsed tunnel of the Edison Power company, 17 miles from here. Fears are expressed that the men are dead. They were caught like rats in a trap when a 75 foot shaft collapsed.

WEATHER — Increasing cloudiness followed by rain tonight or Sunday. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 41 and the lowest today was 33.

STILL CARRIES BULLET.

Albert Winfrey Returns to Paducah to Work.

Albert Winfrey, whose body has been searched over by surgeons for a bullet without avail, has returned to Paducah to work for the Illinois Central. Winfrey lost his purse in Fulton one night and rode in on the blind baggage of No. 104, the fast Memphis-Louisville flyer. He was mistaken for another person was wanted by the police, and a patrolman shot him in the back as he ran. The bullet was never extracted. Winfrey underwent several examinations with the X Ray in Paducah, Nashville, St. Louis Memphis and other cities without success. He toured the south and was examined several times in New Orleans, Birmingham and other places, with same result.

Winfrey still carries the bullet. He plays ball, is active and an excellent railroad man.

REMAIN WET

EDDYVILLE AND KUTTAWA VOTED YESTERDAY.

Election Held Under Old Law and Question Cannot Be Opened for Three Years.

Eddyville, Dec. 8.—Local option elections were held in both Eddyville and Kuttawa yesterday, both towns voting to continue the sale of whiskey. The majority vote in Eddyville was 34 and in Kuttawa 68. These elections were held under the former law and not under county unit law. No election can now be held for three years.

Ballard County Is Dry. Dispatches from Wickliffe, Ballard county, say that the dry element predominated in the local option election yesterday. The vote was 1,700 to 290. Wickliffe is the last Ballard county town to go dry, the entire county now being local option.

CONGRESS WILL DO NOTHING MORE UNTIL MONDAY.

Passes Bill for Game Preserve in Olympic Mountains and Other Measures.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—At 3 o'clock yesterday the house adjourned until Monday, having during the legislative session passed several bills and received from the committee on appropriations legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

During the three hours the house was in session, it passed a bill which has the enthusiastic endorsement of labor as well as manufacturers generally repealing the portion of the Wilson Interstate commerce bill relating to convict made goods and permitting the several states to legislate for themselves as to their competition with "free labor" made goods.

A bill also was passed creating a game preserve in Olympic mountains in Washington.

An election of officers of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen will be held Monday night at the hall over Walker's drug store at Fifth street and Broadway. REAPPOINT BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Is Mayor Yeiser's Intention Some Time This Month

Nothing Given Out About Its Make Up or Reason—Revision of Tax Books.

COMPLETE AND EQUITABLE

Mayor Yeiser will reappoint a board of tax book supervisors this month. Who the new members of the board will be, and whether any or all the old board will be retained is a question the mayor refused to discuss, but he has admitted that he will name a board to attend the revision of real estate assessments in January.

Further than this the mayor would not state, and his purpose is not known, but it is certain that the revision will be the most complete and equitable ever made, and there will be a considerable change in the assessed value of property in the city of Paducah. The total value now is $6,969,597.

City Assessor Stewart Dick did not make changes in the real estate assessment except where improvements were added, as the board of tax book supervisors will go over the books in January and make the quadrennial revision.

The board will have a block map of the city to enable the members to study the location of lots. They will then form a basis by raising or lowering the assessment by districts, considering the natural conditions and environments in estimating the relative value of all property lying in these natural divisions.

Having done this, other features will be considered. Mayor Yeiser has been extremely particular in selecting his men for this board and when the late R. G. Caldwell was ill the mayor refused to accept his resignation, and delayed naming a successor for several weeks in order that a good man might be secured. His choice finally rested on James Glauber. The board is now composed of James Glauber, Eli G. Boone and Richard Holland.

MENANDER FRAGMENTS FOUND.

500 Lines Each of Two Plays of Great Greek Dramatist.

London, Dec. 8.—Inspector LeFebvre, of the Egyptian department of antiquities, has discovered a large number of leaves of papyrus of the Codex Menander, containing over 1,200 lines. The leaves are not continuous, but there are 500 lines from each of two plays. Two more plays are represented by smaller quantities. These will enable modern scholars for the first time to form an independent judgment of the style and genius of the famous Greek comic dramatist.

FIX ACREAGE

Green River Association Growers Reach an Agreement.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 8.—The executive committee of the Green River District Tobacco Growers' association, which met in Owensboro Thursday night, adopted a resolution fixing the acreage of tobacco that may be planted by members of the association at 10,000 to a hand and 5,000 hills to a half hand, all boys over 14 years of age being considered half hand.

Fight With Pulajanes.

Manila, Dec. 8.—A column of constabulary troops encountered a band of Pulajanes between La Paz and Terragona, on the island of Leyte, December 5. In the battle that followed four soldiers were killed and eight were wounded. Among the wounded was Lieut. Ralph P. Yates, Jr. His wounds were not serious. Thirty Pulajanes were killed and many were wounded and captured. No details of the fight have been received.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Tonight "A Woman of Mystery"
Monday Night Charley Grapewin in "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp"
Tuesday Night George Sidney in "Busy Izzy's Vacation"
Wednesday Night Billy Kersands' Minstrels
Thursday Night "A Moonshiner's Daughter"
Friday Night Frank Daniels in "Sergeant Brue"

All advance notices of attractions at the theater are contributions of the press agents of the attractions, and should receive only the consideration, as such, they deserve.

Miss Morgan as "Ayesha."

A production of Sarah Bernhardt's famous play "A Woman of Mystery," with Miss Courtenay Morgan in the role of "Ayesha," is underlined for The Kentucky tonight. Managers Walters & Way have surrounded Miss Morgan with an able company. Special scenery is carried and the costuming is worthy of mention.

Hit in Cleveland.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer has this to say of Charley Grapewin and his company, who will appear here at The Kentucky Monday night: "Musical comedies are all the rage and many of the best as well as some of the worst in the business have appeared in Cleveland during the past two seasons. There seemed the same fault with all of them from a critical standpoint, and that was that they were all built along the same lines, and when one has seen one of them he feels that he has seen them all. Not so. There is a musical comedy at the Lyceum this week that is in a class by itself. It is clever and well produced and even if the company were a poor one, which it is not, and the play badly constructed, the comedy would be a decided novelty, for it is like no other ever seen in this city. 'The Awakening of Mr. Pipp,' as produced by Charley Grapewin and his excellent company, is a strange and fascinating little drama. The production is billed as a musical drama, for it has plenty of heart interest, a clearly defined plot and what is more is a moral lesson to men who are in the habit of taking a 'wee drop too much' on certain occasions. What 'Ten Nights in a Barroom' has been to the legitimate stage 'Mr. Pipp' gives promise of being on the comedy boards. At any rate it is a novelty and many times worth the money. The man who went away from the Lyceum theater Monday night unwilling to admit that he got his money's worth of entertainment, either wants the earth for a pittance or is a chronic crank."

George Sidney.

George Sidney and his big company of comedians, dancers and singers are announced for an appearance at The Kentucky Tuesday night. Something bright and snappy in the musical comedy line, possessing the titular handle of "Busy Izzy's Vacation" will serve as the vehicle for this merry little comedian's tour again this season. Mr. Sidney's jovial humor is natural. This year the cast embraces some of the leading artists of musical comedy. The chorus is a marvel of beauty and training, the costumes expensive, new and novel in design, and the scenery appropriate and artistic. In fact "Busy Izzy's Vacation" can readily be classed as a musical production equal to any recent date.

Frank Daniels Coming.

Frank Daniels in his musical farce, "Sergeant Brue," under the direction of Charles Dillingham, will be the attraction at The Kentucky Friday night. "Sergeant Brue" is a noteworthy international success. It met with the approval of London audiences before it was brought to this country and last season it was seen for six months in New York and for long periods in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago. Mr. Daniels interprets the title role, that of a London policeman, who inherits a fortune providing he becomes an inspector within a certain period of time. The libretto is by Owen Hall, who has written most of the books for the Gaiety theater, London, and is particularly well known as the author of "Floradora." The music, which is of a superior quality, is by Liza Lehman. A large and capable supporting cast, it is promised, will be seen with the star and the production, while its scenes are modern ones, is said to be very elaborate and beautiful.

Negro Minstrels.

The announcement of the coming engagement in this city of Billy Kersands' famous minstrels on Wednesday night carries with it a great deal of interest to the theater-goers, and this interest is intensified by the fact that the performance is bigger and better than ever this year. The sensational first part this year is a novelty, representing a mammoth watermelon. The olio is a large and strong one, consisting of eight clever acts, and handled by the following artists: Arthur Maxwell, trick bicyclist; Campbell Bros., black aristocrats; Alonzo Moore, magician; the Comedy Four Langford, Smith, Johnson and Cameron; the Imperial Drill, by Prof. Thomson; the famous mimic, Billy Nichols; the original and only Billy Kersands, and the world-renowned Alabama Quartette; L. Johnson, hoop roller, and Travelle, the human frog.

"Moonshiner's Daughter."

"The Moonshiner's Daughter," which plays at The Kentucky next Thursday night, seems to be one of those plays the public never tires of. This is the fifth season of the play and every season its business seems to increase, and to those theater-goers who enjoy a clean wholesome play with lots of good comedy and specialties.

CONSTITUTIONAL

Convention May Be Called by Vote of the States.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 8.—The organization of the United States senatorial amendment convention in session here will be continued beyond the adjournment of the present meeting, as the convention will favor the calling of constitutional convention only because it believes it impossible to get the senate to act with the lower house of congress in proposing an amendment for the direct election of senators by the people. These were the two features of the meeting today.

Time a-flyin' on so fast
O'er the frosty ways;
Christmas comin' all too soon
These here later days!
Scarcely end one Christmas song
'Fore the next one comes along.

Yet, what matter? Let 'em come!
Speed you down Time's river!
Welcome Christmas horn an' drum;
We'll be young forever!
Time is flyin' on so fast.
Maybe we'll get wings at last!

The program will begin at 3:30. It will be miscellaneous, with a discussion of "Musical Life of the Roman Empire." Mrs. Eugene Robinson is the leader.

Mrs. Armour Gardner, of Fountain avenue is hostess to the Magazine club on Thursday afternoon. Harper's, North American Review, Atlantic Monthly, Outlook, Hubbard's Journeys, Literary Digest will be reported.

Miss Cushman, head of the art department of the University of Chicago, will deliver two lectures on Friday and Saturday for the Paducah High School Alumni Association at the High school auditorium. Friday evening at 8 o'clock the lecture will be on "The Interpretation of Pictorial Art," with stereopticon views. Saturday afternoon she will speak on "Artistic and Aesthetic Development—A Social Problem."

December Socially.

The social calendar for December does not promise now to be overcrowded. There will be probably very little entertaining done before the holidays, as people are busy now in other ways and there are few visitors in the city to make immediate parties an imperative necessity. The clubs are announced for the coming week, but after that brain culture will be at a standstill for the heart to do its Christmas work. The great rush of pleasure will come after Christmas, when there will be, doubtless, enough to satisfy even the most untiring debutante.

Enjoyable Dance.

A very delightful dance was enjoyed last evening by a number of the younger society crowd at the Knights of Pythias hall. Mrs. Annabel Sebree chaperoned the affair and those present were: Misses Nella Hatfield, Helen Hills, Mary Cave, Helen Powell, Jean Morris, Elsie Hodge, Katherine Powell, Elizabeth Sebree; Messrs. Clay Kidd, Tom Coubourn, John Cullinane, Harry Singleton, Charlie Rieke, Henry Henneberger, Guy Martin, Cade Davis.

Party to Charming Debutante.

A noticeably handsome affair was the card party on Tuesday afternoon given by Mrs. William F. Bradshaw, and Mrs. William F. Bradshaw, Jr., at their home on West Broadway, in honor of Miss Katherine Powell, an attractive and popular debutante of the winter. The reception hall and parlors were a pretty effect in the Christmas colors, red and green. Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Will Bradshaw and Miss Katherine Powell received in the hall, the tables being arranged in the double parlors. Miss Powell was very charming in a dainty costume of white chiffon cloth trimmed in forget-me-not blue. Mrs. Bradshaw wore a handsome toilette of black crepe de chine. Mrs. Will Bradshaw was beautifully gowned in white lace over white silk.

The married ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Armour Gardner. The young ladies' prize went to Miss Clara Thompson. A beautifully appointed luncheon of substantial and ices in the red and green motif was served after the game.

The guest list included eighty present.

Five Hundred Club.

Mrs. William F. Bradshaw, Jr., was the hostess of the Five Hundred club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on West Broadway, entertaining very delightfully, only the club members and a few visitors to fill club vacancies. The club prize was won by Mrs. Robert Reeves. The visitors' prize was taken by Mrs. Laura Fowler. An attractive luncheon followed the game. The four tables of guests included: Mrs. Thomas C. Leech, Mrs. Victor Voris, Mrs. Bertie F. Campbell, Mrs. Hal Corbett, Mrs. Armour Gardner, Mrs. Ben Welle, Mrs. Robert Reeves, Mrs. L. A. Washington, Mrs. John Keller, Mrs. A. R. Meyers, Mrs. John S. Bleeker, Mrs. Eli Boone, Mrs. Laura Fowler, Mrs. Milton Cope, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

There will be no meeting of the club until Christmas week when it will be entertained by Mrs. Eli Boone. It will be an evening affair.

Matinee Musical Reception.

The Matinee Musical club gave a delightful musical reception on Tuesday evening at the Eagle club house on Broadway. An attractive program of notable local talent was given in the gymnasium annex. Those taking part were: Mrs. James Welle, Mrs. Will Clarke, Mrs. Geo. B. Hart, Mrs. Stanley, Miss Julia Scott, Miss Newell, Miss Mamie Dryfuss, Miss Adah Brazelton, Misses Puryear, Miss Shelton, Mr. Robert D. MacMillen and Mr. Emmet S. Bagby.

A delightful reception followed the recital in the parlors of the club. Light refreshments were served. Fully two hundred guests were present.

Alumni Meeting.

The Paducah High School Alumni association held its regular monthly meeting at the High school auditorium yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. A. R. Meyers, was in the chair and there was a large and very representative attendance. Mrs. Louis M. Rieke read a delightful paper on "The Art of Michael Angelo." Short addresses were made by a number of the members on various subjects discussed at the meeting.

Plans were outlined yesterday for bringing to the city to lecture soon Prof. S. H. Clarke, who is at the head of the oratorical department of the University of Chicago, and a most notable speaker. A committee from the Alumni association and from the Woman's club meet this afternoon at the Carnegie library to arrange further in regard to the matter. The Alumni association has already arranged to have Miss Cushman of Chicago here the coming week, and together with the literary and educational departments of the Woman's club hope to have many fine lectures in Paducah during the winter.

The association will meet again the first Friday in January.

Crescendo Club.

The Crescendo club held a very delightful meeting with Miss Virginia Newell at her studio in "The Inn," on North Seventh street, on Thursday afternoon. Schumann was the composer of the afternoon and piano numbers were rendered by Misses Mary Bondurant, Ella Wilhelm, Eunice Robertson and Tillie Bauer. "Foreign Musicians in America" were discussed very interestingly as follows: "Pianists in America," Miss Mary Byrd; "Conductors in America," Miss Lucille Weil; Violinists in America, Miss Mary Bondurant; "Vocalists in America," Miss Gertrude Pinkerton.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club on Tuesday morning at the assembly room in the Carnegie library discussed several characters prominent not only in the history of Spain but in world-history also. Mrs. Frank Scott gave a fine character sketch of "Ximenes—Cardinal and Statesman." Mrs. George C. Wallace handled very impressively the powerful personality of "Loyola—Founder of the Jesuits." Miss Kathleen Whitefield's interesting paper on "St. Theresa" was read by Mrs. C. B. Austin in Miss Whitefield's absence from the city.

U. D. C. Chapter.

Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held the regular meeting for December on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Luke Russell, of West Jefferson boulevard was the gracious hostess. The officers elected at the November meeting assumed charge. Mrs. Joseph W. Thompson, who has been the chapter president since the organization, gracefully resigned the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. James Koger. Interesting features of the meeting were the report of Mrs. Luke Russell on the National U. D. C. convention at Gulfport, Miss.; a paper on "Ante-bellum Politics" read by Mrs. William T. Anderson, and a talk on the Philippines made by Mrs. Palmer Wheat, of Mantua, P. I., the guest of honor of the chapter. A delicious course-luncheon was served. The January meeting of the chapter will be with Mrs. James Koger, of North Seventh street, who always has the New Year's meeting, and makes it an especial social occasion.

Woman's Club.

The Woman's club met on Thursday afternoon at the Palmer House. It was a largely attended meeting. The work of organizing the different departments occupied most of the session. All the chairmen of the departments have been selected except the head of the finance and they will arrange their committees as soon as possible. Seventeen new members were added, making a total of eighty three. The club will not meet again until the first Thursday in January at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church. The year book will be ready by that time and regular work will be entered on.

Birthday Honored.

Complimentary to the 70th birthday of her mother, Mrs. Rebecca H. Corbett, Mrs. Charles W. Thompson entertained a few intimate family friends at her home on North Sixth street on Wednesday. It was a pleasant occasion and an elaborate old-time dinner was served.

Pleasant Evening Party.

Miss Maggie McHenry, of 1210 Tennessee street, was hostess of a very enjoyable card party on Monday evening at her home. After the game delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. William Ritter, Misses Susie Oberhausen, Dorothy Oberhausen, Mary Easley, Ruby Sulver, Laura Oberhausen; Messrs. John Weitlauf, Gus Bishop, Elmer Brake, Herman Heavren, Harry Sulver, John Easley and Ben Scott.

Evening Card Party.

Miss Rosa Carter, of Tennessee street, entertained most pleasantly on Wednesday evening a congenial party of friends. Euchre was played and delightful refreshments served.

Red Men's Ball.

A large crowd enjoyed the annual ball of the Red Men at their hall on North Fourth street on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in dancing and refreshments were served.

Box Social.

The Ladies' Mite society of the German Evangelical church gave an enjoyable box social on Thursday evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. William Bourquin, on South Fifth street. An attractive musical and literary program and light refreshments were features of pleasure.

Three Surprise Weddings.

The marriage of Mr. Leon Gleaves, of the city, to Miss Bessie Thompson, of Elkton, Ky., took place Thursday morning in Louisville, where the bride was visiting her brother, Mr. Jesse Thompson. They came at once to Paducah and are at home at 912 Jefferson street. Mrs. Gleaves has often visited in Paducah and she and her husband are popular socially.

Miss Emma Thompson and Mr. Murray Cabell, of Paducah, were married in Memphis, Tenn., where the bride has lived recently, on Wednesday. They belong to prominent families of the city and will make their home in St. Louis.

The marriage of Miss Clausie Sutherland and Mr. William Englert, of the city, was solemnized in Los Angeles, Cal., on Wednesday. They will reside in the west, where the bride has been for some months, living with an uncle.

About People.

Mr. and Mrs. George Flournoy are at the Palmer House for the winter. They closed their attractive summer home, "Lolomol Lodge," this week.

Mrs. George C. Thompson and little daughter, Juliet, leave today for Kansas City, Mo., to visit Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Juliet Taylor, for several weeks.

Mrs. Mary D. Harris, of North Fifth street, will leave Tuesday for Ardmore, I. T., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Maxwell. Mr. Frank Harris, who has been visiting his mother here, will return to Pueblo, Col., at the same time.

Miss Lucy Patton, of Blacksburg, Va., who has been visiting Miss Belle Cave and Miss Blanche Hills, will on Monday be the house guest of Miss Frances Wallace, of North Ninth street. All were Hollins seminary girls at Hollins, Va.

The Girl With French Heels.
Common sense heels are commoner and more sensible than ever. Yet here and there a woman clings to the tiny towers of Louis Quinze and trips blithely on her way, serene in possession of a Spanish instep. When all's said, there is something essentially attractive about the French heel. Unhygienic, even dangerous though it is, it suggests femininity in every graceful curve, and the very smallness of its base reminds the masculine beholder how slight a hold in earth a genuine angel has. 'Tis well, perhaps, that there are a few beauties who cling to it—they are so piquantly picturesque in the tiresomely common-sense world.—New York Press.

Daily Thought.
"You will never regret having spoken the just or generous word."

Windows full of toys and attractive articles, a bit of holly and mistletoe appearing here and there, and busy women shoppers thronging the streets, present a lively scene on Broadway. It is almost impossible, when one sees the things there are to be sold, and the well dressed people so eager to buy, to realize that right here in Paducah are hundreds of little children who will have no Christmas unless charitably inclined people help them. It is because on his daily rounds the newspaper man finds distress and gaunt hunger on all sides, that The Sun started its Christmas tree for the children several years ago. The project attained such magnitude that it became impossible for a man out of touch with the work 364 days in the year to manage it properly. So the Christmas tree was turned over to the Rev. R. W. Chiles, of the Union Rescue Mission, but The Sun continues to be the Santa Claus. This year as usual donations will be received, and coupons appear in The Sun daily, that those who desire to donate a dime toward the Christmas tree may have the chance to do so. A dime isn't much, but 4,000 dimes will make many a poor heart glad it is Christmas. That is the reason The Sun's Christmas tree has been such a success from the beginning. It affords the opportunity for a large number of people to contribute a small amount each, and yet accomplish a great deal, whereas individually they might do little toward making the poor happy. We would like to have it said that not a child in Paducah was overlooked by Santa Claus.

Manifestly the next douma of Russia will be in sympathy with the ministry, or there will be no douma. It is difficult to foretell the outcome of the civil struggle in Russia, but always we look eventually for freedom for the unhappy children of the czar. Whether it will come through oceans of blood or be brought about by gradual concessions, we only wonder and fear. When the first douma convened and enacted laws, insisting on independence on the one hand and fighting anarchy on the other, we hoped. But anarchy and the nobility united against the conservatives and there was an end to the douma. Often we have been borne up by the success of a Witte or the promises of a czar, only to be disappointed. Poor Russia! We some times think her people must wrest their liberty from the aristocrats. Some times we dread their reign of terror more than that of the grand dukes. Possibly, the czar, too, fears the peasants are not ready. Anarchy always defeats its own ends.

Ice cream manufacturers from all over the United States appeared before the pure food commission in Louisville and pleaded with the committee for the sake of their patrons to be allowed to continue making the ice cream of a mixture of gelatin, produced from rancid South African hides in glue factories; milk, containing 8 per cent butter fats; gum tragacanth, the principal ingredient of mucilage; and eggs, of antecedents unknown. They declare they made the stuff of this composition because the public appetite craves it. Furthermore, they protested against being compelled to use milk containing 18 per cent butter fats, because ice cream is not food, but a delicacy. The distinction is too fine for our untutored organism, and since our food digestive organs will persist in wrestling away with "delicacies" just as they do with "food," the commission is scarcely justified in exempting ice cream.

The suggestion that the rivers and harbors congress ask for a general appropriation of a certain amount annually for the improvement of our internal waterways is a good one. Jealousy between different sections, we believe, as much as any other factor, has hindered progress in the development of the navigable streams. Both St. Louis and Chicago have set their hearts on a deep ship canal from the lakes to the gulf; the Tennessee river people, of course, desire big appropriations for that stream; Ohio river towns see only the needs of their own stream, and there is more or less rivalry between the upper and lower river, and thus it obtains all over the country. It were better to secure a big appropriation and let it be spent in a way to build up our waterways systematically and thoroughly. In that way harmony of all interests will be gained and a concerted fight for the streams carried on.

What will be the result if boys are allowed to destroy with impunity school property and tempt by their freedom from punishment other youngsters to emulate their example? These embryo citizens are being trained in body and mind for the work of the world, and one of the first lessons inculcated must be respect for the law and the property and personal rights of others. If neither the police court nor the juvenile court has jurisdiction over young offenders, Superintendent Lieb is none too precipitate in asking that a trust officer be appointed. Then the young offenders can be hunted down, their own responsibility and that of their parents established and the punishment fixed to suit the ends most conducive to the welfare of the boys. For the sake of the boys let us have a trust officer.

King Peter, of Servia not long, it seems, will enjoy the fruits of the diabolical crime by which he attained to the throne. The bloody conspiracy of the military, by which the king and queen were murdered in their beds and this weakling coronated is still fresh in the public mind. Now, we hear of similar bedroom conspiracies against King Peter, with warnings that Europe will see to his abdication and place the succession in stronger hands. After all, kings are but pawns and regicide is just plain murder.

Sometimes it seems as though the parable of the prodigal son is construed too liberally, with too much stress on the fattened calf episode, and too faint reference to the season of hush and repentance. The youth who inaugurates his career with the idea of consecrating his early manhood to the cultivation of an appetite for ancestral veal, is apt to look upon promotion to the position of boss wine herd as an ambition, before he is called home to arouse the jealousy of his more dutiful brother.

How is this? Papers in every federal judicial district in the United States seem to be claiming for their presiding magistrates the honor being referred to in the president's message as the district judge who took liberties with the labor statute. When Senator Foraker gets through with the Brownsville incident, he might call on the president and the department of justice to tell a senate committee all they know about "a district judge."

If the weight of the evidence is regarded the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which introduced three trunks full of railroad records, weighing 1,400 pounds, in a suit for discrimination, should win without effort.

The Asahi, The Nohi and the Jiji, all are pleased with the president's reference to Japanese citizens. They say nothing about his attitude toward reformed spelling.

A fault finding newspaper generally is run by a fault finding man. That simplifies the equation. We all know what a fault finding man is.

Many a man who calls himself conservative is but a coward.

BUSINESS BRISK DURING THE WEEK

Retail And Wholesale Trade Has Holiday Impetus

Bank Clearings Exceed Last Year By Over $100,000 and Are Ahead of Last Week.

TOBACCO CROP TAKES MONEY.

Bank clearings $880,622
Same week last year .. 768,025
Increase 121,597

This week shows not only a large gain over the same week of last year, in bank clearings, but a good increase over last week of this year. There is the greatest activity in all lines in Paducah now that has ever been known, either as regards volume or movements.

Undoubtedly more money will be spent this holiday month than ever before, because prosperity is here in a greater degree than ever before. The weather has been ideal the larger part of the week for retail business and the merchants already report extensive sales. Holiday shopping will be on in earnest next week.

In the wholesale trade, it is but necessary to note the loads the heavy wagons carry, to comprehend it. Every wagon going to the river or freight depots, usually has a capacity load. The fact that the movement of wholesale goods out of the city, is larger than into the city is noteworthy. The probabilities of several new railroads into Paducah, open up a vista of commercial prosperity for 1907 and subsequent years, as far ahead of present conditions, as they are ahead of conditions a decade ago.

Money in Paducah is tight at the banks from the heavy movement of the tobacco crop. This week has seen great quantities brought into the city from the surrounding country and by boat and railroad.

CRUEL JAILER.
Does Not Feed Rats and They Eat Prisoner's Shoes.

Rats this morning gave an unsolicited testimonial to the cleanliness of the county jail. They ate D. Grace's shoes nearly up. Grace is a colored trusty and is permitted to sleep in the hospital ward upstairs, where rats are plenty. After eating the toes of his shoes they attacked his feet. Jailer James Eaker does not permit food or crumbs tempting to rodents to lay about the jail by which fact he accounts for their ravenous appetites.

Circuit Court Reversed.
Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 8.—Judgment of the McCracken circuit court in a damage case of the Illinois Central Railroad company against Urey Young was reversed by the court, and the cause remanded to the lower court with directions to instruct for the defendant company. The opinion of the court was written by Judge Lassing. In the court below the plaintiff secured judgment for $2,000 for the loss of an eye while employed in the railroad shops at Paducah. The court here says Young was not entitled to recover damages, as his injury was no fault of the railroad company.

Relief for Rheumatism.
These damp days are hard on people afflicted with rheumatism, and relief is sought in all sorts of remedies.

There is no doubt in the minds of people who have suffered with dread disease and those who have studied it closely that probably more relief can be secured from the Osteopathic treatment than any other.

Of course, some chronic cases won't yield to any treatment, but instances of cases of seven and eight years' standing yielding to three months' treatment can be cited. If you are suffering from rheumatism, I should like to discuss your case with you, examine you and tell you what I can do for you. With the dry air treatment that I use with osteopathy I am having very gratifying success with people you know well.

Quit Buying Tobacco.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Dec. 8.—Reports to the Daily New Era state that Marion, Crittenden county, passed a quiet night. It is thought that the prompt action of both Dr. R. L. Moore and Arthur B. Jarvis, the two tobacco dealers who were warned by the letter signed "DTPA or Night Riders," in stating that for the present at least, they would neither buy nor receive any more tobacco, has had the effect of appeasing the raiders. Precautions will be taken, however, and should they visit the town, armed resistance will be offered.

Wedding of Interest in Paducah.

Yesterday's Jackson, (Tenn.) Sun says:
"At six o'clock yesterday evening, Miss Sadie Mercer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Mercer, of Mercer, Tenn., and Judge Thomas McCorry of our city were married in the new Baptist church at Mercer, the Rev. E. S. Harris, pastor of the First Methodist church at Humboldt, officiating. The church decorations were tasteful in the extreme and would have done credit to the most finished artist. Above the recess in the front of the church and on either side a beautiful trellis work of green holly was formed against a pure white background, and the pulpit, which stood in the center, was covered with white and trailed over with asparagus fern, and spigelia, with fine effect. The ushers, Mr. John P. Mallory, Mr. Thomas G. Hughes, Mr. Monroe D. Anderson, of Jackson, and Mr. Walton Getchum, of Memphis, came in two and two and took their places. Then came Miss Mattie Lou McGlathery, of Paducah, Ky., and Miss Kathleen McCorry, of Memphis, the bridesmaids who wore rose pink organdy over tulle, each carrying an armful of pink carnations."
The bride is an especially handsome girl and has visited often her cousin Miss Mattie Lou McGlathery in Paducah where she is very popular.

ACKNOWLEDGES

THAT HE RECEIVED MONEY FROM OIL COMPANY.

Senator Bailey Demands to See Vouchers and Is Accommodated By Official.

Austin, Tex., Dec. 8.—Throughout Texas today in political as well as business circles the sensation of the hour has been United States Senator Bailey's card published in this morning's papers acknowledging that he received money from H. Clay Pierce of the Waters-Pierce company during the past six years, but that the money was secured as a loan.

The sensation attendant upon this announcement over Senator Bailey's signature was the general understanding for the past six years that he had never directly or indirectly received any money from either the Waters-Pierce Oil company or Standard Oil company.

Following Senator Bailey's card of this morning, in which he demanded of Attorney-General Davidson all documentary evidence in his possession which tended to prove the charges of Davidson that Bailey was paid by these interests of Mr. Pierce of the Waters-Pierce company for services rendered, Attorney-General Davidson last night gave out a statement which contains all vouchers, notes, letters and drafts in his possession, among which was an indorsement:

"Account of expense in anti-trust civil case of state of Texas vs. Waters-Pierce Oil Co., at Waco, $1,500."

"If Johnson approves authorize Bailey to loan $1,500 on his note fifteen hundred. Bailey should quiet all Texas parties. Tell him I will see him soon."

(Signed) "H. C. PIERCE."

FIND NUGGETS IN DUCK'S CRAW.

Nebraska Farmer Thinks Fowl Has Discovered Gold Mine.

Beatrice, Neb., Dec. 8.—Anton Preblich, a farmer living near this city, killed a duck yesterday. When he dressed it he was surprised to find its craw filled with nuggets of gold. There were more than a dozen nuggets all of considerable size. Preblich's home is near a creek, and his ducks have been getting their food from the creek. It is believed that the nuggets were picked up there. The find has created great excitement and a search for gold is being prosecuted on Preblich's farm.

The Unknown Indian Ocean.

Peregrine of no area of our great oceans do we at the present day know less than of the Indian ocean within the tropics. Fifty years ago in the days of the great China and Indian clippers, it was, save for a small area in the north of Madagascar, alive with white wings, anxious to take advantage of every slant of wind or the smallest current, its minutest characteristics were then the subject of anxious study, whereas now its greater part is to most navigators an unknown sea. With the opening of the Suez canal there was a profound alteration of trade, and the most important routes now start not from Mauritius or the Cape, but from the Red Sea. Hundreds of steamers, laughing at winds and currents, pass annually from Aden to Bombay and Colombo, on the one hand, and to East African ports, to Madagascar, Mauritius and Seychelles, on the other. From Colombo, again, there are regular lines to Calcutta, Singapore, West Australia, Mauritius and South Africa. But, except on the lines from the Red Sea to Colombo and from the latter to the far East and to Australia, there is a relative absence of competition, a want of that necessity for accurate knowledge of the winds, currents and topography which is only called forth by a keen desire for saving time or mileage. The routes across her surface are also wide apart, and her islands are commercially unimportant. Great areas are seldom or never crossed by ships; in our six months' cruise on H. M. S. Sealark, we never saw, except in port, a single steamer, and one solitary brig, a small trader from Mauritius to the Chagos.—Geographical Journal.

Willie's Question.
Little Willie's sister was being baptized. Everything went well until Willie happened to catch a glimpse of the water in the font, when he began peering about anxiously, and finally exclaimed in a piping voice, audible to the whole congregation: "Where's the soap?"—December Lipincott's.

Kate Vogt.
Kate Vogt, 13 years old, died at 1217 South Tenth street, this morning of malarial fever. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at St. Boniface cemetery in the county.

In a Class By Itself

Pays $100 Where Other Companies Pay Only $50

The COMMONWEALTH is the only company that pays its Industrial Policies PROMPTLY and in FULL—no matter when death occurs. In any other company issuing Industrial Insurance only part of the policy is paid if insured dies WITHIN ONE YEAR. Can you afford to pay for $100 worth of protection and take a chance on getting only $50? Read the following letter and investigate the COMMONWEALTH policies:

Paducah, Ky., Dec 5, 1906
Commonwealth Life Insurance Co., Louisville, Ky.
Gentlemen: I received this day through your superintendent, Mr. J. F. Nicholson, the sum of $100.00 in settlement of the claim which I had against your Company under policy No. 14520 for $100 on the life of my mother, Mary L. Tyree, who died Nov. 27th.

This policy had been in force only since May, 1906, and yet your Company paid us in full, $100.00, whereas, we would have received only one-half of the amount, or $50.00, from any other company doing an Industrial Business, as your Company is the only one that issues policies in Full Immediate Benefit, which is an excellent provision and which should be considered by those desiring insurance.

Again thanking you for your kindness and promptness in settling the above claim and assuring you that I will always say a good word for the Commonwealth, whenever in my power.

Very truly yours,

ETTA TYREE,
IDA TYREE,
Beneficiaries.

LEADERS FAVOR BRADLEY SECOND

In Conference Held At Henderson Yesterday

Money for County Teachers Distributed by State—Practice in High Court.

TOBACCO BARN BURNED DOWN.

Henderson, Ky., Dec. 8.—Several Republican leaders of this district met here in conference relative to whose cause they would espouse for the gubernatorial nomination. They favored Justice M. Harlan, with W. O. Bradley as second and A. E. Willson as third choice. Those present at the meeting were A. H. Anderson, Hopkinsville; John B. Harvey, Madisonville; J. R. Hildon, Hawesville, and Charles Hager, Owensboro.

Money for Teachers.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 8.—State Superintendent Fuqua today mailed checks aggregating $655,000 to county superintendents for distribution among the country school teachers of the state. The money is due them at this time, and will be followed next week by the distribution of $150,000 among the teachers in the cities, making a total of $805,000. These sums represent 33 1-3 per cent. of the school fund for the year, and is a good bunch of Christmas money well distributed throughout the several counties. It is the largest single payment ever made to teachers in the history of Kentucky. Supt. Fuqua left this afternoon for Mississippi, where he will spend the next ten days hunting.

Judge Peak May Resign.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 8.—Judge R. Frank Peak, of the Shelby circuit court district has under consideration, it is said, a proposition from two well known lawyers of the Louisville bar to form a partnership for practice in the Jefferson courts, and may resign his seat upon the bench to accept it. Judge Peak has spoken to several friends regarding the matter.

Should he retire from the bench there will be a scramble for the office of circuit judge. The counties of the district are Shelby, Henry, Anderson, Trimble, Spencer and Oldham. The county of Shelby being the home of Judge Peak will claim the appointment, and Phil Beard, Charles Marshall and W. T. Beckham, of that bar, would be suggested. In Henry, W. B. Moody, of Eminence, would be presented, while Trimble would likely urge the appointment of Attorney Claude Terrell, and Oldham the name of Judge James S. Morris, of Lagrange.

Admission to Bar.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 8.—The court of appeals made an unusual ruling this morning on its own motion in overruling a motion to admit Robert A. Chrest, of the Michigan bar, to

WHAT IS HEART DISEASE

Heart disease is usually considered a great mystery, probably because of the suddenness with which it sweeps away its victims—yet as a matter of fact no disease is more clearly understood or has a more plainly proven cause—uric acid.

Uric acid, overloads the blood when ever Nature's laws are violated, causing the stomach and kidneys to get out of order. This overworks the heart but it does far more.

Little grains of uric acid become lodged on the valves of the heart so that after each beat the valves cannot close properly. This forces the heart to work twice as hard. Often very little pain is experienced but death comes in a flash. Frequently these little grains of uric acid break away from the heart, lodge in the brain and paralysis results.

LIFE PLANT EXPELS URIC ACID.

LIFE PLANT is a natural solvent of uric acid. It dissolves the deposits of uric acid out of every organ of the body and drives it from the blood. It is the most valuable remedy known in heart trouble and every uric acid disease and condition.

LIFE PLANT is not a cure-all—not a patent medicine. It has been used by the greatest specialists in curing thousands of the most severely afflicted sufferers.

Every person afflicted with heart disease, paralysis or any disease caused by uric acid is urged to write for free medical advice to I. J. Mizer, M. D., president of the LIFE PLANT COMPANY. A valuable new book on "Good Health" will also be sent free. Write today—now before you lay this paper down and forget it.

practice in this court, on the ground that he had not been admitted to practice in a local bar in this state. Chief Justice Hobson wrote an opinion setting out the act relating to the practice of law. He holds that under an act of 1902 attorneys licensed in another state may come in and be sworn and practice in a particular case; that since Chrest is located in Louisville and attempting to practice in this court, he must first be admitted to the Louisville bar before coming to practice in this court.

Tobacco Barn Burned.

Henderson, Ky., Dec. 8.—A large tobacco barn on the farm of Mrs. L. D. Denton, near Robards, this county, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday night, together with its contents, 3,000 pounds of tobacco, 200 bushels of corn and much machinery. Shortly before the conflagration a man was seen to leave the barn, but was not identified. A part of the tobacco had been sold and 630 sticks had been delivered to buyers.

QUEEN OF LABOR WILL BE CROWNED

Miss Geraldine Gibson Officially Pronounced Winner

Coronation Takes Place First Thursday in January at Central Labor Hall.

CONTEST IS FINALLY SETTLED.

Miss Geraldine Gibson is Queen of Labor.

The mooted question of her eligibility to the honor was finally and definitely settled at the smoker and session of the Central Labor Union this week, and the winner of the labor carnival contest will be crowned the First Thursday in January, which falls on the third.

A committee has been appointed to prepare a program for the occasion.

During the labor celebration on Labor Day this fall a vote was taken to choose a queen. Miss Gibson received the most votes, but it was contended that she was not eligible under the rules governing the contest. The matter dragged along, but after a full hearing the Central Labor Union decided at the final meeting that she was fully qualified. She received a gold watch as the material prize.

The ceremony of the coronation is quite elaborate. The crown is placed on the head of the queen-elect by the president of the Central Labor Union. A banquet is usually served and speeches made. An open session of the Central Labor Union will be held January 3.

"Seeing the Southwest" EXCURSIONS

Doubtless you have heard of the Bumper Crops which have been raised this year in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas and New Mexico. Have you compared them with results obtained in your section? Is your work where you are, bringing you adequate returns for the capital invested and the labor expended? If not, a change would be beneficial perhaps. A visit to the Southwest will open your eyes. Out in Oklahoma the last big land opening is soon to take place; farms are still very cheap in Western Arkansas, Northern Louisiana and the Gulf Coast of Texas. Let us give you full information about these sections. You will want to see them after you have examined our illustrated literature.

The REFUGEES

By A. CONAN DOYLE.
Author of "The Return of Sherlock Holmes"
Copyright, 1893, by Harper & Brothers

"We are fresh from Paris. But I am called on business. This is my friend, M. Amos Green. I leave him in your hands, for he is a stranger from America and would fain see all that you can show. He stays with me at my quarters. And my horse, too, De Brissac. You can give it to the room."

Throwing the bridle to his brother officer and pressing the hand of Amos Green, De Catnat sprang from his horse and followed at the top of his speed in the direction which the young lady had already taken.

CHAPTER VI.

THE rooms which were inhabited by the lady who had already taken so marked a position at the court of France were as humble as were her fortunes at the time when they were allotted to her, but with that rare tact and self-restraint which were the leading features in her remarkable character she had made no change in her living with the increase of her prosperity and forbore from provoking envy and jealousy by any display of wealth or of power. In a side wing of the palace, far from the central salons and only to be reached by long corridors and stairs, were the two or three small chambers upon which the eyes, first of the court, then of France and finally of the world, were destined to be turned. In such rooms had the destitute widow of the poet Scarron been housed when she had first been brought to court by Mme. de Montespan as the governess of the royal children, and in such rooms she still dwelt now that she had added to her maiden name the title of Marquise de Maitenon, with the pension and estate which the king's favor had awarded her.

"I am so pleased to see you, captain." The young guardsman had scarce ever exchanged a word with this powerful lady, for it was her taste to isolate herself and to appear with the court only at the hours of devotion. It was therefore with some feelings both of nervousness and of curiosity that he followed his guide down the gorgeous corridors, where art and wealth had been strewn with so lavish a hand. The lady paused in front of the chamber door and turned to her companion. "Madame wishes to speak to you of what occurred this morning," said she. "I should advise you to say nothing to Madame about your creed, for it is the only thing upon which her heart can be hard." She raised her finger to emphasize the warning, and, tapping at the door, she pushed it open. "I have brought Captain de Catnat, madame," said she.

"Then let the captain step in." The voice was loud and yet sweetly musical.

Obedient to the command, De Catnat found himself in a room which was no larger and but little better furnished than that which was allotted to his own use. Yet, though simple, everything in the chamber was scrupulously neat and clean, betraying the dainty taste of a refined woman. The stamped leather furniture, the La Savonniere carpet, the pictures of sacred subjects, exquisite from an artist's point of view, the plain but tasteful curtains, all left an impression half religious and half feminine, but wholly soothing. Indeed, the soft light, the high white statue of the Virgin in a canopied niche, with a perfumed red lamp burning before it, and the wooden prie-dieu with the red edged prayer book upon the top of it made the apartment look more like a private chapel than a lady's boudoir.

HURTS SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES

A Simple Prescription Which Relieves Everyone

Makes the Kidneys Act and Overcomes Terrible Cases of Rheumatism and Bladder Trouble.

HOME MADE KIDNEY CURE.

To make up enough of the "vegetable treatment" which is claimed to be relieving nearly every sufferer who uses it for backache, kidney complaint, sore weak bladder and rheumatism; get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon and three ounces Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Those who have tried it claim that it acts gently but thoroughly on the kidneys, relieving backache and bladder troubles and urinary difficulties almost instantly. Many cases of rheumatism are known to have been relieved within a few days, the pain and swelling diminishing with each dose.

A well-known local druggist, who is in a position to know, asserts that this prescription, wherever it becomes known, always ruins the sale of the numerous patent medicine rheumatism cures, kidney cures, etc. It is a prescription which the majority of patent medicine manufacturers, and even certain physicians dislike to see published. Few cases, indeed, which will fail to fully yield to its peculiarly soothing and healing influence within one week's time. Being composed entirely of common every-day vegetable ingredients, which can be gotten from any druggist, it makes up a good, honest and harmless remedy and at small cost.

Infection.

The wife of an army officer at a western post recently had occasion to visit a small neighboring town, to do some shopping at what is called the General Store. She was much entertained by the variety and antiquity of the stock of goods, and as she passed out her eyes were attracted by a pile of mottoes, elaborately lettered, and ornately framed, the upper one being the Scriptural passage: "Walk in love."

As she paused, the clerk, a dapper young man of more affability than advantages, stepped forward with the remark, "Them are the latest things in mottoes. This top one is swell to put over a young lady's door—'Walk in love.'—December Lipincott's."

Suicide of Animals.

The supposed suicide of animals raises a subtle problem and to deny it is to fly in the face of a deep-rooted popular belief. It is just as much a natural history myth, however, as the hoary headed belief in the adder swallowing its young in time of peril, the toad living in a stone nodule for thousands of years, or the germinating powers of mummy wheat. The most ancient fable deo veridict of the myth mongers relates to the habit of scorpions digging their stings into their heads when unable to escape from fire.

Experiments have proved the fallacy of the scorpion's suicide, notably those carried out some years ago by Dr. E. Ray Lankester, director of the Natural History Department of the British Museum, and Prof. Bourne, of Madras. Scorpions were confined in an extremely hot place, from which escape was impossible, and their frantic gymnastics were carefully studied with serene and philosophic complacency. As in the case of the tortured rattlesnake biting its own body, the action of the scorpion in an apparent attempt to put an end to its sufferings by stinging its head was purely muscular, and Dr. Lankester himself compared the action to the biting the dust attributed to men who die in hand-to-hand struggles, or to the biting of their own hand or arm by unhealthy children in a paroxysm of anger.

That animals bring about their own deaths by violent and abnormal actions is certain, but if all the contributory causes could be ascertained it would probably be found that they did so under the pressure of some torturing pain producing hysterical madness.—Pall Mall.

PRESIDENT'S AID ASSURED IN WORK

To Increase Appropriations For Rivers

National Rivers and Harbors Congress Asks for $50,000,000 Every Year.

MAKE CALL AT WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—President Roosevelt told the delegates to the national rivers and harbors convention who called on him at the white house today that he would consult with the leaders in congress and expressed the hope that something definite and effective could be done in the way of increasing the appropriations for the improvement of the nation's waterways.

Albert Bellinger, of Cincinnati, spokesman for the convention, advanced the proposition that the national waterways made efficient by the aid of the government would not only supply the deficiency of transportation facilities, present and prospective, but would so equitably and naturally regulate freight charges as to be conducive to continued prosperity.

He told the president the convention suggested a regular appropriation of not less than $50,000,000 to replace the "hitherto desultory and inadequate appropriations," for the improvement of the waterways and to place their prosecution on a business basis, insuring the completion within a reasonable length of time.

President Convinced of Need. The president replied in part: "I have had brought strikingly to my attention but recently how much we suffer at present because of the inadequate transportation facilities of railways for moving great crops of this country. We need and must have further facilities for transportation and as has been well pointed out, one of the effective methods of improving the affected railway rates is to provide for proper system of water transportation."

DUN'S REPORT.

New York, Dec. 8.—Dun's weekly trade report follows: The low temperature has stimulated the retail trade in seasonable staples, but interest is most conspicuous in holiday goods. The expectations of record breaking runs for Christmas specialties are being fully realized. Jobbing and wholesale houses are doing well for the season, but the progress of mercantile collections show much irregularity. Very little idle machinery is noticed in factories and mills, except where the supply of labor and raw materials are insufficient, and vigorous demands for all commodities is indicated by the highest level of prices in recent years.

The closing month of the year in iron and steel industry promises to fully maintain the phenomenal rate of progress that has been experienced during the autumn, notwithstanding the further advance in some quotations that might be expected to curtail operations. Every available plant is now actively engaged except where material cannot be secured, and the volume of business looked for next year assures many new records in 1907 unless some unforeseen disaster causes extensive cancellation of orders.

Leather is firm, but the trade is quiet, especially in the east. New England shoe manufacturers' salesmen are securing sample orders for next fall from wholesalers in the north and south and supplementary contracts for spring goods constantly arrive, but on the whole, producers report the usual decrease in activity at this season.

Some improvement is noticed in the movement of wheat to the primary market, but there is still much complaint from the Dakotas, where elevators are overflowing and large quantities of grain are in danger of injury.

A Novel Report.

The superintendent of streets in Cleveland recently summoned to his presence an Irish officer, to whom he said:

"It is reported to me that there is a dead dog in Horner street. I want you to see to its disposition."

"Yis sor," said the subordinate, who immediately set out upon his mission.

In half an hour the Irishman telephoned his chief as follows: "I have made inquiries about the dog's disposition, and I find that it was a savage one."—December Lipincott's.

ISSUES, NOT MEN

STUYVESANT FISH TALKS OF ANARCHISTIC RICH.

Contest Against Those, Who By Questionable Means Seek to Have Excessively.

New York, Dec. 8.—Stuyvesant Fish, formerly president of the Illinois Central railroad, was the principal speaker tonight at the banquet in the Woman's club of Hope lodge of Masons at East Orange, N. Y. Mr. Fish spoke on the topic, "Issues, Not Men."

"That there has been maladministration, not to say stealing, in many of our great corporations, is a matter of common notoriety, and in some cases of positive proof," said Mr. Fish.

"District Attorney Jerome has the credit of coining the phrase, 'the criminal rich.' Would he have come nearer the fact if he had said 'the anarchistic rich'?"

"The contest is no longer between those who have and those who have not, but between those who have moderately sufficiently and even abundantly, and those who through the use of trust funds and the power incident thereto, seek by questionable practices to have excessively. This is the issue which is daily brought into every home in America. Efforts have been made to quiet and hush the clamor which is rising on this subject. Such efforts may succeed for a time, but not in the end."

PICKLES

DISCUSSED WITH SOME ACIDITY BEFORE COMMISSION.

Rule Not Made By Pickle Man but By Man Who Expects to Eat Pickles Some Day.

Standards of purity for cider, vinegar, brewery products and molasses occupied the attention of the members of the United States commission on purity of foods at its morning session at the Seelbach.

Wallace G. Miller, of the Hyman Pickle company, who spoke on the subject of pickles and condiments, caused a flurry by asking if alum and turmeric could be used in pickling.

"They are both forbidden by the pure food law," replied Dr. Wiley.

"Turmeric has been used for a hundred years," said Mr. Miller. "It has been recognized as a most palatable addition to pickles and mustards, and I am sure your mother used it when you were a boy."

"I don't think my mother ever heard of turmeric," said Dr. Wiley.

Chairman Freer then read from the reports of the commission the clause referring to the "standardization of pickles." The standard, as fixed tentatively by the commission, is as follows:

"Pickles are clean, sound, immature cucumbers, properly prepared, without taking up any metallic compound other than salt, and preserved in any kind of vinegar, with or without spice."

"That standard was never prepared by a pickle man," observed Mr. Wallace, after the reading of the clause.

"It was not prepared by a man with pickles to sell," replied Chairman Freer.

"It was gotten up by men who expect to eat pickles at some time or another," added Dr. Wiley, smiling.

The ships that pass in the night sometimes are more numerous than those that pass in the day. All day yesterday, the wharf was quiet. Last night six steamers arrived in as many hours and all had big trips. They came from all points of the compass too. The Dick Fowler from the west; Saltville from the south; Georgia Lee from the east and north. Then the quarter points, southeast, etc., were represented.

The gauge registered a stage of 13 feet this morning, a fall of 1.5 in 24 hours.

The new steamer S. S. Brown will pass down this afternoon or tonight from Louisville. This boat has just been completed and is one of the handiest on any of the rivers, coast-

A Remarkable Four Days' Demonstration By Madame Reeves Beginning Monday, Dec. 10

Showing what the Harbour A, B, C, and Redgeton Ball Bearing Sewing Machines will do.

There is no better friend to a woman than a first-class, guaranteed, easy running sewing machine. These are that kind.

On these machines Madame Reeves makes the most exquisite Mexican drawn work, so fine, so smooth that only an expert can distinguish the difference between it and the real hand made.

The difficult Roman lace made with the finest silk thread, Madame Reeves makes as easily on these machines as our grandmothers made tatting. In the flat embroidery she shades the flowers perfectly. In fact this is a demonstration of high art machine made lace, drawn work and embroidery. She can darn stockings on these these machines, both heels and toes, in less time than it takes to tell about it.

All Are Cordially Invited to Attend This Extraordinary Demonstration

None can afford to miss it. Its a demonstration that emphasizes the high quality and perfect workmanship of these machines. The very low prices of $15, $18, $25 and $30 will be made to introduce these excellent machines. We trust you will do us the honor of attending this demonstration.

ing $125,000. It is a side-wheeler, and steel-hulled. There is a double crew aboard on the down trip to Memphis enabling her to run night and day. At Memphis, many christening presents await the steamer given by river men. The S. S. Brown will run in the Memphis and Arkansas City trade.

The City of Saltville arrived at 11 o'clock last night with such a big trip from the Tennessee river that Paducah freight was dislaid. Six thousand sacks of peanuts, 400 bales of cotton and other items in the same proportion. It was consigned to St. Louis. The Saltville left at 1:30 o'clock for St. Louis.

The Georgia Lee came in at the same time as the Saltville but from a different river. The Georgia Lee had a big trip from Cincinnati for Memphis.

The Butterff arrived at 8:30 o'clock last night late from the Cumberland rivers. The steamer left immediately for Nashville.

The Joe Fowler also came in late, from Evansville at 6 o'clock and left at 8:30 o'clock on the return trip. The Kentucky came back from Metropolis last night making the sixth boat in six hours. The night wharfmaster got his. The Kentucky brought 1,700 sacks of peanuts from the Tennessee river for the Southern Peanut company here. The Tennessee river produces a big part of the peanut supply of the country. The Kentucky will leave at 6 o'clock for the Tennessee river.

Capt. Young Taylor discovered yesterday that rope thieves have made a haul from several of the model barges tied up to Owen's Island awaiting their turn for repairs on the dry docks. Several hundred feet were taken. One favorite practice of rope thieves, is to cut off the ends of ropes, which are left after tying a knot. This is sold as junk.

The Dick Fowler had a good trip to Cairo this morning and today will close a good week for that steamer. By the action of the committee on rivers and harbors in congress Monday, the canalization of the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Cairo was placed in the category of national projects. It will no longer be treated as a local matter. Appropriations for it will not be charged to Pittsburg, or to Pennsylvania or Ohio, or West Virginia. The whole scheme has been nationalized and it will take its place as one of the greatest, if not really the most important, of the actions of congress. If the proposal of Representative E. F. Acheson is accepted by the committee on rivers and harbors, the bill this year will provide for extending the nine-foot channel down to below Marietta and will complete the first 100 miles of the system from Pittsburg to Cairo. This will require an appropriation of $5,440,000, which sum Mr. Acheson thinks is not too large.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon will continue falling during the next two days. At Paducah and Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth will fall slowly during the next several days.

The Mississippi, from below St.

Louis to slightly above Cairo, no material change during the next 24 to 36 hours.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel, will rise rapidly during the next two days.

Mark Twain All in White.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Interest centered about the speaker's gallery during the session of the house, and members temporarily forgot the business of legislation to gaze upon the picturesque figure of Mark Twain, who held quite a levee in the gallery, chaperoned by the speaker's secretary. Wearing a white suit and with his wealth of snow-white hair, the humorist followed the proceedings with much interest. He seemed, however, defying the weather king, his dress being the harbinger of summer instead of winter. Mr. Clemens came to the capital in the interest of the copyright bill, and spoke to many members in that behalf. He will appear before the joint committee on patents in support of the bill.

DEFENDS HIMSELF

AND YOUNG MAN OF EDDYVILLE IS ACQUITTED.

Tilford Braswell, Indicted on Charge of Gaming, Convinces Jury He Is Innocent.

Defending himself against an indictment for gaming by the grand jury at Eddyville, after all the lawyers had pronounced his case lost, Tilford Braswell, a well known and highly connected young man of that town was acquitted by the circuit court of the charge. Braswell was fined in the city court for gaming. He appealed against the advice of lawyers, to the circuit court. The grand jury indicted him. Undaunted, Braswell defended himself and made one of the most effective, as well as one of the most amusing, speeches ever heard in the Eddyville court. The result was he was acquitted by the jury. He never studied law, or the art of speaking, and many persons think if he should develop his talent, so strong in the rough, he would be a great lawyer.
